

February 24, 2026

Maximilien Hallgren
101 Bayard Ln., Apt. B
Princeton, NJ 8540

Dear Maximilien Hallgren,

Thank you for participating in the interview and selection process. We have enjoyed learning more about your professional experience and sharing information about Mathematics and its values. At the University of Arizona, we are working together to expand human potential, explore new horizons, and enrich life for those in our community and beyond.

It's my pleasure to invite you to join Mathematics in the position of Assistant Professor, Mathematics.

Please take some time to review and consider the complete terms of this offer letter. This offer supersedes all other commitments written or verbal that may have been made to you.

This offer is valid until February 27, 2026. To accept this offer, please sign and return by the deadline.

Please contact me at ulmer@arizona.edu if you have any questions about the department, the University, or the terms of this offer. It is our sincere hope that you join our team.

Sincerely,

Douglas Ulmer
Department Head, Mathematics

OFFER TERMS FOR:

Maximilien Hallgren

OFFER DATE: February 24, 2026

TITLE: Assistant Professor, Mathematics

DEPARTMENT: Mathematics

START DATE: Beginning of Academic year, Fall 2026 (Contingent upon completion of all required hiring documents)

COMPENSATION: $100,000, salary at 1.0 full-time equivalency (FTE). If you are a salaried employee and have a FTE of less than 1.0, your salary will be prorated by your respective FTE.

FULL TIME EQUIVALENCY (FTE): 1.0

YOU WILL REPORT TO: Douglas Ulmer

FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT STATUS: Exempt

WORK CALENDAR: Academic

BENEFITS

You are eligible for benefits. To learn more about eligibility, deadlines, and the plans the University offers, please visit hr.arizona.edu.

RETIREMENT PLANS

You are eligible to participate in a retirement plan. To learn more about eligibility, deadlines, and the plans the University offers, please visit hr.arizona.edu.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

This is a tenure-eligible appointment covered under Section 6-201 of the Arizona Board of Regents (ABOR) Policy Manual, Conditions of Faculty Service, and Chapter 3 of the University Handbook for Appointed Personnel (UHAP). This tenure-eligible appointment is subject to the final approval of the President.

Within the parameters of your assigned duties, you will have the privileges and responsibilities set forth in your Notice of Appointment, which is the University's official employment contract. Performance of assigned duties and responsibilities will be subject to ongoing evaluation by an appropriate administrator. Performance will be considered in decisions relating to compensation, retention, tenure, promotion, suspension, termination, or a decision not to renew an appointment. Your duties, including your teaching load, may change based on the needs of the Department and the University. You will be expected to maintain an active research program, to participate fully and with distinction in both undergraduate and graduate education, and to carry out your share of advising duties and committee assignments. The normal teaching load in the Department, under present policy, is 9 units per year for faculty members who are actively engaged in research and publication. Other duties may be assigned.

The University has established a retention review to assess your progress toward promotion and tenure. In your case, your retention review would occur in 28/29. Your mandatory tenure review would occur no later than 31/32. In addition to these reviews, your performance will be reviewed annually to establish merit and set goals and expectations for the following year. You should become familiar with all Department and University criteria and procedures relating to the promotion and tenure process. Please see Section 3.3 "Promotion and Tenure," of UHAP and the Departmental Statement of Criteria.

I-9 & EMPLOYMENT SCREENING PROCESS

This offer of employment and continued employment is contingent upon the satisfactory completion and successful outcome of the University's pre-employment screening process. The screening process includes, but is not limited to the University's application, validation of references and credentials, and background check. The Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA) of 1986 requires that all hires produce documents that authorize your eligibility to work in the United States. As required by law, The University of Arizona will verify all hires' legal status using E-Verify, the federal online verification system. Misrepresentation of your qualifications may be grounds for offer withdrawal or employment dismissal.

REQUIRED UNIVERSITY TRAININGS

The University requires all new hires to complete certain trainings within 30 days of hire or as a condition of accessing information systems and records. Required trainings will be assigned as part of your onboarding process. For more information on University trainings, please visit <https://compliance.arizona.edu/training>.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Under the University's Conflicts of Interest & Commitment Policy, you are required to disclose substantial financial interests to the University. You must complete your disclosure no later than 30 days after your hire date. If you will be a full-time employee and/or conducting U of A research, you have additional disclosure requirements. For more information on your disclosure requirements visit: <https://research.arizona.edu/OROI/disclosure-requirements>.

MOVING ALLOWANCE – HOUSEHOLD ONLY

To assist with your moving efforts, you will receive a household moving allowance of $10,000. Household moving allowances are taxable under federal law. Payment will be provided to you through your paycheck and will have taxes withheld based on your federal and state withholding form selections (Federal W-4 and State A-4). You are encouraged to seek competitive estimates of your relocation costs. A list of vendors with existing U of A contracts is available at <https://financialservices.arizona.edu/purchasing/vendors/moving>. You may contact Mario Calderon at calderom@arizona.edu who can advise you on the process. You may also visit <https://policy.fso.arizona.edu/fsm/900/914> for more information on the university's relocation policy.

START UP FUNDS & EQUIPMENT

Startup funds of $60,000 will be provided over the first three years of your tenure-track appointment and all funds must be spent by the end of the 4th year (or June 30, 2030). Startup funds will be distributed as follows: $20,000 in the first year, $20,000 in the second year, and $20,000 in the third year. These funds may only be used for travel, professional fees and operational support, e.g. FTE/staff, office funds, equipment, etc., and office space will be provided. Half of this funding is provided by the College of Science (COS) and the other half is provided by the Department of Mathematics. The COS funds are available in the year in which they are provided, and written requests for extensions in the COS funding timeline will be considered for approval on an as-needed basis. Mathematics will also consider extensions for the use of Mathematics funding upon written request to the Department Head. You will be advised on the procedures to be followed in obtaining equipment. Ownership of this equipment will remain with the University and must be returned when requested or at such time you leave University employment, whichever is earlier.

Signature: Maximilien Hallgren

Date: 2/26/2026 11:25:24 AM